Hi everyone,

This is a reminder that we will have meeting at the same time on Wednesday.

A little change about server address information:

Stage instance will be held on port 8082.

www.upstage.aut.ac.nz:8082

User names will remain the same as last time.

Yue

Cheers from the AUT UpStage team

Hi everyone,

Sorry for such a short notice before our meeting.
8082 does not upload media.

So can we change our meeting location to 8081?

Cheers
Yue

hah - was just writing to you about this. sure, if 8081 works we can meet there. also, last week paul suggested using jitsi for more direct speaking about things. so we could set up a jitsi session as well.

see you in 8081 in a minute,
h :)
